GOVERNMENT SOLUTIONS

MULTIFUNCTIONAL, STRONG, RELIABLE

WHO WE ARE

Founded in 1948, Elliott has been at the forefront of the industry for over seventy five years. Our commitment has always been to provide rugged, multifunctional equipment crafted from the finest components. Today, we continue our legacy of excellence, prioritizing quality, safety, and durability. We design and build superior equipment that ensures your operations run safely and efficiently.

BUILT FOR YOU

Our core mission: to create top-notch solutions for lifting and positioning people and materials. We are dedicated to understanding your needs. Trust us to tailor solutions that fit your operations and enhance the way you work.

ELLIOTT: THE SUPERIOR CHOICE FOR GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS

We recognize the unique challenges faced by government entities: safety protocols, maintenance needs, budget limitations, and time constraints. Leveraging our vast experience and our extensive government partnerships, choosing Elliott ensures you're making the best decision for your agency.

Safety / Our machines adhere to the highest industry standards. They are designed, built, and tested in compliance with all relevant ANSI, ASME, and OSHA regulations. Our engineers are active members of the committees that frame these standards. Moreover, Elliott products are renowned for their structural stability, and the telescopic 'point and shoot' design is intuitive, reducing tail-swing in traffic situations.

Budget / Our machines are designed with multifunctionality in mind. This means an Elliott machine can efficiently replace two or even more units in your fleet. Plus, as a Sourcewell supplier, we provide various leasing and financing options, ensuring that purchases require minimal upfront costs.

Efficiency / Users consistently praise Elliott machines for their superior productivity and functionality. Features like easy setup, multifunctionality, and the convenience of having all tools accessible at height result in faster job completion and the flexibility for one crew to manage multiple tasks.

Maintenance / Elliott machines come with the industry's leading warranty, ensuring they spend more time at the work site and less in the repair shop. Your local support ensures timely maintenance and service.

PRODUCT ADVANTAGES

- » Versatility at Its Best / Combine aerial, material handling, and even digging with a single machine.
- » Telescopic Precision / Point and shoot design ensures easy operation with zero articulated tail swing into traffic.
- » Office in the Sky / Benefit from a larger work platform, advanced material handling, and accessible tools.
- » Maximum Side Reach / Minimize setup times and increase work efficiency.
- » Advanced Platform Features / Power a variety of tools, including electric, air, hydraulic, and facilitate welding, cutting, and material handling right from the platform.
- » Stow and Go Jib / Acts like an extra pair of hands, holding objects ergonomically for workers.
- » DynaSmooth Controls / Delivering unparalleled precision in operations.
- » Robust Structural Design / Ensures longevity and optimal performance throughout your machine's life.
- » Top-Tier Warranty / Offering peace of mind with the industry's best warranty.
- » Effortless Procurement / Our Sourcewell Contract simplifies your purchasing and leasing processes.
